A Fun Day of Singing and Learning

We are pleased to announce details of the 2019 A Cappella Spring Fest. This will be the eighth of these inspiring and successful events and we have a packed programme to offer, including some traditional activities plus some new styles and classes. See below for more information.

Tutors this year are:

Chris Rowbury Jo Sercombe
Anna Shackleton Bernard Soper

Classes will include:

Show Choir	Performance with Pizazz
Sight Singing Tricks	Joining the dots made easier
Total Warm Up	Engaging the body and the voice
Building Harmonies	Harmon-eyes by ear
Breathing & Support	Short pants don't suit anyone
Vocal Colour	Understand your plumbing & improve your sound

Choral streams on offer are:

Mixed Barbershop Gospel
World Songs Madrigal

The event is open to anyone aged 18 or over and we guarantee you will have an entertaining, informative and above all, fun day.

Tutor backgrounds can be found on our website (URL on the front of this flyer) and full details of the sessions you can choose from will be in the prospectus which will be available from our website in December. The cost of the day will be £49.50, with some group discounts available.
